

Our Vision: "A just and harmonious society rooted in the gospel values of love, freedom and peace."

Our Mission: "To restore the dignity and potential of marginalized individuals and communities by facilitating access to holistic education, health, livelihood, and stable shelter."

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS

"The exploitation of the planet has already exceeded acceptable limits and we still have not solved the problem of poverty."

EMBRACE THE ENVIRONMENT IN LOVE

Dear friends in Christ,

Pope Francis said that, "Religions have a very important role in this task of promoting care and respect for the environment. Faith in God leads us to recognise Him in His creation, which is the fruit of His love for us, and which requires us to care for and protect nature." Let us unite and be of one mind and one spirit as we strive to protect and safeguard our environment.

Over the past month, the papers have been rife with reports of natural calamities and disasters. Our homelands of Kerala and Maharashtra have been ravaged by the rains which have destroyed farmlands and houses, damaged crops and taken lives. We are working towards providing aid and help to as many disaster stricken areas as possible through all your generous contribution. I thank you for your contribution which will help them sustain themselves and rebuild their lives post this disaster. I am certain the Lord will bless you bountifully for helping Him by helping your brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus.

May our relationship with nature not be driven by greed, to manipulate and to exploit, to lay waste and destroy, but rather may the divine harmony that exists between us beings and nature be conserved in the spirit of logic and care. I pray that the Lord Almighty, Creator and preserver of all may protect us all from disaster and grant us the courage and goodness to help those that are in need.

Yours in Christ,

BE SENSITIVE TO THE ENVIRONMENT

The evolution of humankind is largely dependent on the quality of the environment and the resources it provides, and the natural environment plays a vital role in ensuring the survival of present and future generations. The earth and its environment are potentially under threat because of numerous human-induced factors, and climate change may drastically alter the conditions of human sustainability. The consequences of climate change on communities are increasingly being felt in many parts of the planet. Climate change is not merely an environmental, scientific, or economic issue; it has become a humanitarian issue too. Increased climate variability and greater intensity and frequency of extreme weather events aggravate humanitarian needs in emergencies and lead to water and food stress, as well as to changing patterns in the geographical spread of diseases. Over the last two decades the number of recorded disasters has doubled from approximately 200 to over 400 per year, while over the last decade the number of people affected has tripled. Environmental issues are increasing day by day. Every month we come across natural calamities like flood, landslides, drought etc. It is the need of the hour to be more sensitive to our Mother earth and protect the environment from its destruction.

PEOPLE LED EMPOWERMENT TOWARDS SUCCESS

Caste certificates are essential legal documents for identity purpose. To get caste certificates, it's a struggle but with results. Karunya Trust has been working in 15 hamlets of Kalyan Block of Thane District of Maharashtra. Thakur communities (scheduled Tribal community) are staying in Kelni, Mhasrundi, Bangarwadi, Kunde, Dahivali, and Thakurpada hamlets and depend on forest produce and daily wages for living. The main issue of the community is lack of caste certificates and due to this people are unable to avail the Government schemes. "Due to caste certificates unavailability, 12 children could not get scholarship and higher education," said Ganpat Hindole one of Active Leaders of Thakurpada hamlet.

On November 22, 2018, Karunya Trust organised common meeting in which 108 people participated to discuss issues of documents like 1950 residential proof or Village Registration Form no14. Karunya Trust staff motivated them to form Block level Committee before having a meeting with Tehsildar and Sub Divisional Officer. After much struggle and difficulties an application was drafted to submit to Tahsil office. On Dec 13, 2018 the Tribes visited the Tahsildar office and submitted 396 applications for Caste certificates. On May 24, the tribals received 362 caste certificates.

institution) and raised water issue. Gram Sabha made a resolution and sanctioned one borewell for the community. But the hamlet faced low voltage problem. Again 15 women from the hamlet came together and visited Gram Panchayat and also Member of Legislation Assembly (MLA) and submitted the application to have electricity board in the hamlet. MLA took the issue seriously and assured to solve electricity issue within one month. On June 14 Maharashtra State Electricity Board (MSEB) and Gram Panchayat installed new Transformer for hamlet" said Uma Mukane.
